Tourist officer: Hello, can I help you?

Visitor: Yes, I am looking for a place to eat with my family.

Tourist officer: Are you looking for some type of a restaurant in particular?

Visitor: Oh, we'd like to go for something local. No China today.

Tourist officer: Sure, I'd definitely recommend the King's Restaurant just around the corner. The meals there are delicious. Oh, and don't forget to try the Czech beer.

Visitor: Thank you, that sounds great.

Tourist officer: Is there anything else I can help you with?

Visitor: Can you tell me what would possibly entertain my children? They are 8 and 10.

Tourist officer: I think, they'd definitely want to see the Silver Mining Museum. It is fun for children as they can go underground in the miners' suits and with their lanterns. And it is educative as well.

Visitor: Great. How can I get there?

Tourist officer: It is just about ten minutes on foot. Let me show you the map of our town. We are right here. On this square you need to take the Polní street and then turn left. The museum is right in front of this great church, you can't pass it without noticing.

Visitor: Thank you.

Tourist officer: No problem. Would you like any more information?

Visitor: Not for now. Thanks, bye.

Tourist officer: Bye and have a nice day.
